Hindi is one of the world’s main language, with over 650 million speakers in India, and millions more on every continent. There are man primers that teach children who can already speak Hindi-how to read and write their language. As the title Hindi Teacher for English Speaking People suggests, Dr. Ratnakar Narale has written this book with a different audience in mind: English speakers of all ages who want to learn Hindi from scratch. This audience includes many kinds of people: the inhabitants of non-Hindi-speaking parts of India; Canadians, Americans, and West Indians whose ancestors came from India, but whose first languages is English. This logically arranged book is filled with virtually thousands of examples, and each dialogue is designed with the view of its practical value for the targeted people. Along the way, hundreds of new words and the frequent exercises let he student learn to speak and write Hindi sentences almost without much effort. This practical ‘Teach Yourself’ manual closes with exercises in correcting faulty sentences, reading dialogues, telling the time, and writing letters. There are also useful lists of proverbs, synonyms and antonyms, and so on. Dr. Narale has been careful to draw most of the examples from words and concepts that are familiar to Westerners. This emphasizes that Hindi is a world language, and not merely an Indian one. Truly practical, compre-hensive and easy to understand reference manual for classroom study to learn Hindi.

In an area where corn was cultivated, nearby a big building which was used to store the corn, the animals were gathering to enjoy the morning sunlight. There were dozens of goats, cows, ducks, geese, not forgetting the chickens. Those animals were kept in their own pens near the big storehouse. This morning the farmhands had let the farm animals roam around freely, while they were busy organising the harvesting of the corn. Everything seemed peaceful. Until night falls ... A thrilling night.

In a thick forest on the continent of Australia, with closely packed eucalyptus trees towering up into the sky. And a lake spreading out all around it. There lived a happy koala family. Mummy Koala, Daddy Koala, and their child, K. K was now two years old and he was growing into a healthy young male koala. Chale jo do kadam saath woh, (As she ambles the aisle with me) To unke saath se Pyaar ho jaye, (May I be enmeshed in her companionship forever) Thaame jo Pyaar se mera haath woh, (As she seizes my hand with tender love) To apne hi haath se Pyaar ho jaye, (May I be ensnared by the charm of my own hand) Hota hai agar itna khoobsurat yeh Pyaar, (If love is so alluring and prepossessing) To aye Khuda unhe bhi mere Pyaar se Pyaar ho jaye! (Oh omniscient being! May she be enchanted by my love) It was 5 in the morning when I blinked open an eye to wake up. I was in deep sleep till some time ago, and it felt as if someone had lovingly caressed my hair. But when I opened my eyes, there was no one there. For a few precious moments, I felt the sensation of that loving touch that I had experienced since childhood. It seemed as if that sensation was all around me. Now that presence was close to me; my Radha in the form of Annu was in my life. Divine Love of Two Souls is a story of those emotions that this generation has perhaps lost along the way.

Mausam Zindagi Ke... is an anthology of human emotions, resembling the diverse seasons of nature. Life is about vibes, emotions and feelings. Sometimes, you love thyself so much that you feel you don't need any other person. Sometimes, you feel the same love for someone else and love seems to be in the air. Sometimes, you feel you are left out and there is nobody who loves you. These feelings are in likeness to the various seasons of nature. Summer—a season that makes you feel energized and everything around smiles because of the light all around. Winter—a season that makes you indolent, sometimes laid-back and sometimes gloomy. Autumn—a season when you look around and everything seems to be gone away. It makes you feel as if there is no tomorrow. Spring—the time when everything turns green, beautiful and makes you feel lively. There is so much to learn and get inspired from in our surroundings. Just one simple thing to understand is that if there is tunnel of darkness, there will be light at the end of it. Likewise, if there are moments that make you feel perished in life, there will come a time which will make you feel revived and you will surely rise in it. Mausam Zindagi Ke... connects human behavior with nature, both being beautifully infused in each other.
