He humbled the Euro-peans who were till then regarded as masters of the game, and the Americans; demonstrated the finer points of the sport to the New Zealanders and Australians, and gave the Nazis a bloody nose when he led the Indian team to a 8 -1 victory over an ag-gressive German side in the 1936, Berlin Olympics. India reigned supreme in hockey during Dhyan's playing years and for some decades afterwards, earning our country the respect of the world.

History, however, will remember him as the architect of India's Constitution.
