been unleashed. The Blood Thief continues the story as Alex and her enigmatic host, Greer Sinclair, are on the hunt for an elusive vessel that can only be opened by the power of the amulet. Contained within this vessel is a prophecy—one that could alter the world, good or bad depending on who gets to it first. The search will take them from the streets of Little Italy to the campus of Cornell University. There they meet the eccentric and brilliant Dr. David Oxford who sheds light on why the vessel has been nearly impossible to find. Could a mere mortal hold the key to finding it? Will an ambitious mafia princess ruin their plan? As the hunt heats up, so does the attraction between Alex and Greer. And as her unique birthright unfolds deeper at every turn, that attraction and the friendships she cherishes will be thoroughly tested. Alex isn't the only one with secrets—some hard to believe; others simply unfathomable.

Immortals, vampires, or necromancers—who will win? If it's war the Caspians want, it's war they'll get. The fate of the Winterborne clan's youngest is in the hands of the vampires—or is it? There's a new player in the game. The woman who's been watching Georgia Winterborne in her room at night has an affinity for the dead, and her alliance with the Caspians has just leveled the playing field. Georgia is becoming a beast, and if the Caspian king has his way, he'll transform her into the ultimate weapon to use against her own clan. And if that's not enough, they have another shocking surprise in store for the Winterbornes. It'll take two queens to stop them, but first they have to find Morgan's mother, Katherine, who's buried somewhere at the bottom of the sea. King's Reckoning is the finale to the House of Winterborne series.
