Tom Copeland presents the business of Family Child Care: Record-Keeping

Child care centers are usually located in commercial buildings. Centers are larger and care for more children than family child care providers. They are usually divided into groups or classrooms of similarly aged children. Child care centers typically have many staff members who are overseen by a director. This is a book about the fundamentals of becoming a childcare boss! Breaking down the ABCs of what it takes to succeed in this childcare industry and how to get ahead and level up!
