to identify and communicate effectively in a spouse's "love language."

To love and be loved, what could be more important? The craving to be loved is our deepest emotional need. Each of us feels loved when others speak our primary love language. We are drawn to that person because he or she is meeting our basic need to feel loved. The love languages in human relationships are a reflection of divine love. If man is indeed made in the image of God, then we would expect to find all five love languages (and more ) expressed in the character and nature of God. Dr. Chapman's
