Gabrielle 'Coco' Chanel was, without doubt, the most influential designer of the 20th century. This book honours her influence by celebrating the key elements that defined and still define her style through inspired pairings of classic and contemporary photographs. Juxtaposing fashion plates from Chanel's own time with the most recent creations by Karl Lagerfeld, such as Cecil Beaton's portrait of Coco Chanel presented alongside one of Cate Blanchett by Lagerfeld himself, the resonance between archive and contemporary photographs becomes sharp, vibrant and telling. The vocabulary of Chanel's style - the little black dress, baroque inspirations, androgynous chic - is revealed in eleven chapters that compare original forms in the 1920s with the full range of their later expressions through every fashion

era. Chanel's legendary fashion house continues to captivate a huge audience with an insatiable appetite for one of fashion's undisputed style perennials.

"I AM" GOD OF FASHION: Reconciling the Fashion Industry Back to Its Creator From whatever perspective we choose to look, it is clear that fashion plays a tremendous role in modern society, controlling and governing human masses. With this reality taking place, it is only natural to wonder where the Lord Jesus Christ, the Author and the Finisher, is in all that ... because He must be there somewhere. "I AM" GOD OF FASHION is dedicated to souls' redemption inside and near the fashion industry. Looking beyond superficial experiences, this book explores fashion through the light of the gospel of Jesus Christ. It examines industry's key realities for the insiders, consumers, and fans of fashion, and equally inspires all to seek and find the Lord's heart. Visit us: www.GodofFashion.com Fashion is a litmus test of any society and it embodies all major characteristics of human life of any given point in time and space. Not only that. In fashion, all of these qualities grow grotesque and reveal the true seed that is on the inside. Fashion and other artistic industries, however significant and fairly admired, are often regarded as "sinful" and un-redeemable. Additionally, they are certainly perceived as foreign and distant to the lordship of Jesus Christ. And it is therefore, nowhere else more than in fashion, that we are to reveal and deliver His Light, Love, and Truth.
