

Delphi Collected Works of Anthony Hope (Illustrated)

Famous for his 1894 adventure novel 'The Prisoner of Zenda', Anthony Hope was an Edwardian era novelist whose works spawned the Ruritanian romance genre. For the first time in publishing history, this comprehensive eBook presents Hope's complete works (except for two books not in the US public domain), with numerous illustrations, rare texts, informative introductions and the usual Delphi bonus material. (Version 1) * Beautifully illustrated with images relating to Hope's life and works * Concise introductions to the famous novels and other texts * 29 novels, with individual contents tables * Includes rare novels appearing for the first time in digital publishing, including LUCINDA * Images of how the books were first published, giving your eReader a taste of the Edwardian texts * Excellent formatting of the texts * Special chronological and alphabetical contents tables for the short stories * Easily locate the short stories you want to read * Includes Hope's rare war essays - available in no other collection * Scholarly ordering of texts into chronological order and literary genres Please note: due to US copyright restrictions, Hope's last novel 'Little Tiger' and his autobiography 'Memories and Notes' cannot appear in this edition. When the texts become available in your public domain, they will be added to the eBook as a free update.
