Barbara Taylor is a different breed. In Father, Who Are You? Taylor shares with a transparent and humble heart many stirring reflections on being a struggling wife, devoted mother and a fearless missionary in India. In this devotional Taylor uses scriptures as a diving board, splashing into the memories of her life of growing up in Alaska and later ministering in the villages of India. As she reveals to us how to live a life of faith, and how to experience the pure joy, peace, and freedom; there is a deep refreshing. At first glance this book appeals more to Christian women, yet Taylor's insight into the problems that ended her marriage, and her accounts of the cultural differences and extreme challenges she faced as a missionary in India, make it an invaluable read for a larger audience. -Bluelink Review

Sir John Houghton's life chronicles the history of climate science. Discovering in the course of his study of the weather that climate change is a reality and does threaten the future of the planet, Houghton found out something else. Not all scientists were prepared to tell the truth. When truth is inconvenient, even threatening to certain interests, then those interests will go to great lengths to challenge it. He says "The warning is now urgent. The science is now robust, time is moving on, and humankind is responding far too slowly. God has granted us stewardship of this planet. It is a creation full of wonder and we must do everything in our power to keep it so." The warning has always been there, but opposing forces have prevented us from hearing it. Sir John Houghton is still battling. This book is part of that battle. This collection has been crafted to provide professional-sounding, easily prepared arrangements for busy pianists. It contains 25 selections appropriate for wedding ceremonies, including favorites such as Pachelbel's "Canon in D" and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" as well as timeless selections by Bach, Handel, Mozart, Schubert, Saint-Saëns, and others. Also included are 25 selections appropriate for wedding receptions—standards such as "Fly Me to the Moon" and "Someone to Watch Over Me," pop hits such as Michael Bublé's "Everything," and classic movie songs such as "A Dream Is a Wish Your Heart Makes" from Cinderella. Each arrangement has been carefully engraved for easy reading, and approximate performance times have been included to assist with planning. Reflections of a Cat Whisperer

Reflections of a Cat Whisperer is a journey through childhood and then into life as an adult. The short stories, thoughts, and verses are descriptions of the interactions between numerous felines and me throughout the years. This collection is not one continuous story; rather it contains descriptions of moments with my thundering herd and other felines. It is about a magical way of looking at life through which I received wisdom and continue to do so from these marvellous creatures. The author knows well of the Power above all Powers, the Strength and Love above all Loves. Indeed he knows we have a Lord of Lords, an Alpha and Omega that always was, is, and forever shall be. Wayne relays if there were anything he would desire for readers of this work, it would be that each one facing the maladies of life could be restored as God is doing for Wayne. He also sends along the knowledge he is yet as Paul stated long ago and realizes My sinful self, my only shame. Things he would recommend to others are these: never give up! Pray and praise, dance and sing, for this is what a Christian's future holds. Agape love.

There are many devotional books available containing brief, daily inspirations that benefit all who read them. This book is different in two respects. The first is obvious: it contains two readings per day–732 in all. The second, more important difference is that the author wanted to do more than offer inspiration; this would make this book no different than so many others. The messages in the book are study sketches in that the content is not only inspirational, but also educational, challenging, and encouraging. Most of these writings were based on author Michael J. Akers's teaching of adult Bible studies for more than thirty years and learning what really brought adults to want to deepen their knowledge and application of the Word of God.

You will laugh as you cry and as you fall in love with this joyful wife, mom, and entrepreneur with an incredible zest for life that simply could not be defeated, not even in death. This romantic tale of love's triumph over adversity, or elevate your own relationship into the depths of the intimacy and completeness we all yearn for—depths that you may doubt actually exist. They are the very depths of pure love we were created for. Those struggling with the darkness of a terminal illness, their own or a loved one's, will find in The Last Dance a brilliant ray of light to guide them through this final portal. For our deceased loved ones are not gone; they have simply gone ahead.

This is Ryan's story While helping to raise his severely disabled step son, Mikel Noles was pushed to the limits of his abilities. Facing the fact that Ryan was not to live past the age of 5. he and Marj fought against all odds. At age thirteen, Ryan passed away, and it was then they learned just how special Ryan really was. They discovered he had changed the lives of thousands. The cards, letters, and face to face meetings - from those who had come to call Ryan their best friend- were all asking for the story of Ryan, their struggles and victories, to be told to the world. Mikel Noles was born in Portland Oregon and grew up in the Northwest. During his childhood he met Marj when he was twelve, while teaching her Sunday School class. They grew up together, and at the age of 21, Mikel joined the US Army. They drifted apart, until twice years later when God brought them together again. His activities thus far include: Research, Biblical studies, Bible study booklets, Teaching the Bible, and raising his family. Mikel has privately published several books: Israel Explained; USA All Under God; Living Up To Your Name; 40 Herbs to Better Health; and The Lost Books of the Bible. Mikel and Mari now live in Milwaukie Oregon, with their children.
