The term "project finance" is now being used in almost every language in every part of the world. It is the solution to infrastructure, public and private venture capital needs. It has been successfully used in the past to raise trillions of dollars of capital and promises to continue to be one of the major financing techniques for capital projects in both developed and developing countries. Project Finance aims to provide: *Overview of project finance *Understanding of the key risks involved in project finance and techniques for mitigating risk *Techniques for effective evaluation of project finance from both a financial and credit perspective The author differentiates between recourse and non-recourse funding, tackles the issues of feasibility, identifies the parties normally involved with project finance plans, and details techniques for realistic cash flow preparation. *Inspired by basic entry level training courses that have been developed by major international banks worldwide *Will enable students, and those already in the finance profession, to gain an understanding of the basic information and principles of project finance *Includes questions with answers, study topics, practical 'real world' examples and an extensive bibliography

Accounting in Africa

The LDC Waiver is a legal tool that enables WTO Members to sidestep their obligation to treat all services imports equally under the Most-Favoured Nation (MFN) clause through the granting preferential treatment to services and service exporters from a Least Developed Country (LDC). It is similar to the [?]Enabling Clause[?] for goods within the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP), except that the Waiver only benefits LDCs, not all developing countries. It operates thus as an [?]LDC-only Enabling Clause for services[?]. The Waiver only enables preferences, it does not require WTO Members to grant them, nor provide them with specific ideas or tools to facilitate LDCs[?] exports into their markets. This paper presents the findings of the pilot study on Nepal. Focusing on a selection of services sectors of particular export interest to Nepal, this case-study assesses, where appropriate on an anecdotal basis, whether and to what extent the preferences granted by WTO Members respond to the market access, regulatory and other barriers experienced by Nepal[?]s services exporters in their export market(s). By converging all available sources of information, the analysis aims to identify the relevance of the notified preferences for Nepal[?]s services exports, possible gaps and opportunities for further development of improved market access mechanisms, as well as its utilization by LDC services exporters. This book contains the solutions to problems in the main Introduction to Financial Accounting Textbook This text is intended for a first course in introductory financial accounting. It was updated to reflect current International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS). For example, it reflects the recent change in IAS38, para. 98, allowing the use of multiple methods in amortizing intangible assets. It focuses on core Introductory Financial Accounting topics that match pre-requisite requirements for students advancing to Intermediate Financial Accounting. Excluded are advanced topics that are covered in Intermediate Financial Accounting, such as leases and bond amortization. The text takes a corporate approach (vs. beginning with a sole proprietorship emphasis and then converting to a corporate approach); this consistency throughout the book reduces confusion for the introductory student.

The book is about the initiatives taken by countries in combating money laundering in africa.

Now in its eighth edition, this international bestseller has been widely recognised as the definitive textbook on management and cost accounting for over 25 years. Colin Drury expertly blends the theory and practice of management and cost accounting with extensive assessment questions and illuminating Real World Views, to fulfil all undergraduate and professional course needs in a single textbook. Management and Cost Accounting is ideally suited for use on management accounting and cost accounting modules taught on undergraduate accounting courses and for students preparing for the cost and management accounting examinations of the professional accountancy bodies at intermediate or advanced level. It is also appropriate for use by postgraduate and higher national diploma students studying cost and management accounting for the first time.

A Corporate collapse typically involves the insolvency or bankruptcy of major business enterprises. A corporate scandal involves alleged or actual unethical behaviour by people acting within or on behalf of a corporation. Many recent corporate collapses and scandals have involved false or inappropriate accounting of some sort. These have resulted into the loss of confidence by Investors in Companies as well as management. To be able to restore the confidence of investors as well as the general public in corporations as well as the Audit Profession, regulatory bodies across the world such as INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION OF ACCOUNTANTS (IFAC), ASSOCIATION OF CERTIFIED CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS (ACCA-UK) and the INSTITUTE OF CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS - GHANA (ICA-GH) are determined to train Professional Chartered Accountants who will perform their work with professional judgement and scepticism. It is in light of this that this subject ADVANCED AUDIT AND ASSURANCE is critical to the professional accountant. However, the studying and preparation for the examination by most students and the pass rate are continuously poor due to the inadequate and inappropriate study materials and lecturers availability. To address this, the Author of this book has spent ample time in research from various world-class lecturers from institutions such as London School of Business and Finance (LSBF), Accounting Practice Centre (A.P.C), among others and from other professional materials on the subject, and has written this book not to add to the already existing books but to bridge the gap between Studying the subject in class, writing the examination and practicing the profession in Corporate Organisations. With this book in your hand, three things can be assured: STUDY, UNDERSTAND & EXCEL. You will become a Professional Chartered Accountant with in-depth knowledge and understanding.

'Accountant in Business' is a general introduction to accounting and business for the ACCA examination. This textbook, originally by D. Annand and H. Dauderis, was intended for a first course in introductory financial accounting. It focuses on core introductory financial accounting topics that match pre-requisite requirements for students advancing to Intermediate Financial Accounting. A corporate approach is utilized versus beginning with a sole proprietorship emphasis and then converting to a corporate approach; this consistency throughout the book reduces confusion for the introductory student. This most recent revision by D. Marchand converted the text from IFRS to reflect the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles of the United States (U.S. GAAP).
